

"The Live a Thousand Years program captured my attention almost 2 years ago and I have applied all aspects to my personal life and my passion behind community involvement. I encourage you to attend and you will gain more than you intended!" - Stacy Besch, owner ICM Seminars

Live A Thousand Years Workshop

Stacy Besch, owner ICM Seminars and Maureen Elbert Executive Director, KCEDC invite you to attend this seminar that deals with navigating your time, thinking and ability to make change and how that will impact not just your professional, but personal development.

On Jan 14th, we will launch the first Live A Thousand Years Workshop of the New Year at the Wild Rose Casino in Emmetsburg. Join us for this one-of-a-kind learning experience designed for community leaders who want to grow personally and who want to grow their communities.

Live A Thousand Years Workshop was created from the inspiration and imagination of Giovanni Livera. Based on his captivating book, this workshop reveals the power of measuring time by experiences and teaches us how to plan for success in the moment. This inaugural event, led by professional speaker and Certified Experience Economy Expert, Renee Malone, is designed to help you live a grander life experience AND help you grow your community!

Mark your calendar: Wed. Jan 14th, 8:30am – 12:30 pm

Live A Thousand Years Workshop is a personal and professional development experience for people who want to achieve more in life and in their community. Renee Malone will be your guide through the “five’ Life Navigation Documents. This life planning system reveals the ‘five’ directors of navigational thinking- a powerful creativity methodology that moves your thoughts into meaningful action. Prepare to be among other leaders of your community as a participant at this fun, transformational experience that will positively impact your life and your community.

Who:

Renée Malone is Founder / Chief eXperience Officer of KICK THE MOON ® LLC. Through a potent combination of training expertise and thought leadership, KICK THE MOON goes beyond training to transform culture. As one of the first ten people worldwide to earn the title of Pine & Gilmore Certified Experience Economy Expert she boots businesses into new and different directions for progression in the Experience Economy. Renée is member of the National Speakers Association, an accomplished training director, crowd pleasing speaker, and creator of The eXperience makeOver™— the on-site ‘makeover’ workshop that has catapulted the customer-employee experience for numerous businesses and individual companies.

Stacy Besch is the owner and founder of ICM Seminars based out of Algona, Ia. Stacy has accomplished a great deal through hard work and risk taking in her young life. Being in her 30's, Stacy has been a salon and day spa business owner for over twelve years; she is co-owner of a retail-shopping plaza, an instructor for community colleges throughout the state, a professional speaker around the midwest, and a mother of two young children.

In addition to all of this, Stacy is actively involved in the community by sitting on the local Chamber of Commerce board of directors, is a member of Rotary International, and sits on numerous committees that make progressive changes in her area. She was recently awarded 2008 Small business of the year!

With her professional speaking, Stacy has captured audiences with motivational and inspiring presentations that assist members of the audience in organizing their lives, encouraging them to taking more risks and helping them in making a difference in the lives of others.
